

Field Day Games

Angry Birds

In this game, teams have to work together to assemble the Castle of The Pigs and then knock down all pigs with the catapult.

This game is excellent for team-building, collaboration, and fun! It is usually played solo and not head-to-head.

The Mine Field

In this communication skill building game, teammates have to verbally guide 1-4 people through a field of cones (mines), snakes (dangerous), bases (safe zones), and gold coins (time bonuses).

This game is excellent for team-building and can be played solo or head-to-head.

Relay Races

Our relay races feature group challenges and visually amusing, laugh inducing, individual challenges.

Arrangements can be made for persons with physical disabilities to participate.

These races are great head-to-head or solo.

Sponge Launch Fill Up Race and Flying Fish Game

Teams fling sponges in the air and teammates catch them and wring them out to fill a bucket.

Or in flying fish, teams fling bath time fish in the air and teammates catch in butterfly nets.

This game is great head-to-head or solo.

Skeeball Cornhole

Part skeeball, part cornhole – teams must toss bags onto or into the boards for points. The further away the board is from you, the more points it is worth. This game is great head-to-head or solo.

Puzzle Relay

Teams must earn puzzle pieces by completing an individual challenge and as a team, gradually assemble a 50-piece kids puzzle.

This game is great head-to-head or solo and requires teamwork and communication skills.

Mega Pong

Mega Pong is like giant beer pong, minus the beer. This game must be played head-to-head.

Rock Paper Scissors Showdown

This game requires some speed, agility, and a bit of luck. Teams jump through hoops to meet their opponents in an epic Rock Paper Scissors game. Win your match and keep jumping until you meet a new opponent. Don't lose or your team starts over from the beginning!

PONG TAC TOE

Like TIC TAC TOE, your team must bounce 3 ping pong balls in cups to get 3 in a row. But your opponent will be trying to block you and get their own 3 in a row. This game must be played head-to-head.

Cherry Hunt

In this game, teammates have to find cherries in their whipped cream pies. Fastest time wins!
